This is to certify that Mr was enrolled on the above-mentioned course at the University of Warwick. This course was taught wholly in the medium of English at the Coventry campus of the University of Warwick. The University of Warwick is a registered provider of education in the United Kingdom with recognised degree-awarding powers. For further information please see the website:
www.dcsf.gov.uk/recognisedukdegrees/index.cfm

Award certificates are normally provided to degree-level students at their graduation ceremony, however, students can opt to defer their graduation for up to 12 months or to graduate in absentia. Undergraduate students normally attend a ceremony in July and postgraduate students normally attend a ceremony in January. Students receiving awards at sub-degree level are not eligible to attend a graduation ceremony. Along with students graduating in absentia, these students will normally receive their certificate via the post within two months of the date of conferral.

Yours faithfully
